

Approval of the Revised Policy Council By-Laws

The policy council by-laws have been revised to be current with the new Head Start Performance Standards.

The program service plans have been revised to be current with the new Head Start Performance Standards along with changes that have been made in our current programming.

The systems and services areas have also been revised and updated to new management positions.

Board approval is requested.