

Approval of CCMS Math Intervention

Teacher

Carroll County Middle School SBDM would like to add an additional math intervention teacher to provide additional support during the school day for struggling students. This would allow them to support student in mathematics in the same manner they do with reading. This position would be paid entirely from the school's Title One funding and would serve all grade levels.